POLICIES

- Published prices include gratuities
- House, call, premium and super premium receptions include domestic and imported beer, wines by the glass, house sparkling wine, soda, juices, mixers and one featured specialty cocktail.
- All complimentary cocktail receptions are not allowed to take place on Day 1 of the cruise.
- Cocktail receptions require a guaranteed attendance no later than two weeks prior to sailing; all receptions will be billed for the final guaranteed figure OR the actual attendance figure, whichever is higher.
- Cocktail receptions must be purchased for the total attendance of the group (total group count), and for the duration of the event (rounded up to the hour).
- All cocktail parties and functions are set in one hour increments. Half hour increments are not available.
- Parties must be continuous. Splitting functions in half or “bookend” parties are not available.
- For cocktail receptions held in lounges, the front bars are normally closed: however, the front bars can be opened. Dedicated front-of-house bartenders are $125 each, per hour. Number of front of house bartenders needed is to be decided by onboard management. Additional bar waiters can be requested for a charge of $50 per hour (1 per 25 guests).
- Cocktail receptions require a minimum of 16 guests for at least one hour.

COCKTAIL PARTIES ON CONSUMPTION

- Cocktail parties on consumption that are not private may be booked in bars and lounges during normal hours of operation. Drinks may be ordered directly from the bar staff at the bars/lounges, understanding that the event will not be private nor will the service staff be exclusively dedicated to serving guests that are part of the group gathering. Seats or an assigned area will not be reserved.
- Private cocktail parties on consumption that are requested in bars and lounges during normal hours of operation require approval to close the lounge.
- Private cocktail parties on consumption may be requested in bars and lounges outside of normal hours of operation with ship approval and prepayment of required fees to open the bar and staff the party.
  - Groups of 250 and less = $750 per hour
  - Groups of 251 and greater = $1000 per hour
- Offered in venues with actual bars (On Consumption events are not available in conference rooms, specialty restaurants, pool deck or venues without a fixed bar)
- Ship has the right to determine the number of staff required to service the party, at any time during the function/event. Should it be determined during the function/event the need to have a full complement of staff is no longer necessary, the Beverage Manager reserves the ability to reduce the staff as necessary.

IN SUITE PARTIES

- Cocktail parties in Suites are available at per person reception pricing with an additional $50 per bar server per hour.

GROUP CULINARY OPTIONS

- Food items purchased for group cocktail receptions and functions must be equal in quantity to the total number of guests in the group. Group total is determined by the number of guests indicated on the final group amenity detail.
- All menus are fixed and unalterable. No changes, substitutions or modifications are allowed.
- No refills. Any additional items requested onboard will be charged to the group's onboard master account at the prevailing a la carte price.
- Substitutions for out-of-stock items may occur without advance notice.
- Functions requiring food items may be held in any approved public area or venue with the exception of the theater and cinema.
